Description
Including the "Search" button on the search page itself seems unnecessary and potentially confusing to users.

History

#1 - 11/18/2006 10:16 AM - Xianhua Liu

1. removed the left side menu bar to make more room for contents
2. added menus (about and Search) at the top frame

#2 - 11/25/2006 07:36 AM - Robert Peet

Well, it is still on the search page, but this is not a big deal and I am going to close this bug.
