Description
If you generate a map with Netscape 8.1, the map never quite finishes. You do get a map, but you also get an hourglass when you mouse over the legend, and periodic recycling of the spinning dogwood indicating map generation - sometimes ending in an error message ["unable to display MapService"].

Firefox 1.5 has the same issues as Netscape

Works now. Perhaps the moving of the sources tab solved the problem. I checked Netscape 8.1.2 and FireFox 1.0.1.
