

InfoVeg - Bug #2854

Data checking is redundant

Description
Some checks are duplicated in error check: stem source value, for example. Need only one check, and duplicate checks are annoying. In general, the error checking is a bit more annoying than it should be. Ignoring errors (there's a bug for that, too) would be quite helpful.

History

#1 - 05/25/2007 07:03 AM - Michael Lee

Entry tool fixed so that error reports aren't duplicated for common errors (stem source, for example).
