Description
It says you have to fill in the field before moving to a new field, but that's almost always false.

History

#1 - 08/17/2007 11:43 AM - Michael Lee

Required field has an odd statement about needing to fill in a field before moving to the next row. Nearly always false.

Spreadsheet like arrows tab could use some controls to use the arrows in. Subform with several rows.

Help box makes reference to "below" but there is no below. Need example help.

OK, help is OK, but needs to be clarified (very bottom of form).

smart plot picklist needs help enabled.
