Description

This might be old news, but I'll report it anyway.

When I start up Kepler, the "Welcome" window has a link "Getting Started", which leads to kepler/configs/kepler/introScientists-beta1.htm

introScientists-beta1.htm should have a link to kepler/src/configs/ptolemy/configs/kepler/introScientists.htm or else perhaps the Welcome Window should link directly to introScientists.htm
It is important that the demos be easily visible to new users.

History
