Description Similar to the KAR upload feature for sharing actors, Publication Ready Archives should be uploadable so that people can view: -information about the workflow -the execution details -the report[s] generated -anything else yet TBD Note: this might be unnecessary if we're going with a server-based mechanism for scheduling runs, archiving the results and then putting them where they can be viewed by the masses.

this overlaps with the KAR upload. almost entirely. maybe even entirely

#2 - 06/25/2009 03:38 PM - ben leinfelder

we've now done a preliminary upload to indus - this looks good. will refine, but closing this
