Description

The stylesheet for rendering the report (as pdf) has the following defaults:

Title: 16pt bold

Section Header: 14pt bold

The report designer panel shows large bold for the section header only; the report title is small and normal weight - can we bump that up to match the values in the stylesheet so that there's a correlation between the designer and the result?

History

The fonts for the Title text field and the Section text field have been changed, so the the font for the Title text field is Bold, 16 pt. and the font for the Section Header text field is Bold, 14 pt.
