Description

The "Browse All Assessments" option on the FIRST website hosted by the EGR server is corrupt/flawed currently. Instead of displaying a list of links to various assessments, it displays a concatenated string of the name of the various assessments. My guess is that the XML parser that generates suitable HTML to be displayed is not properly functioning. Even logging in as a valid user doesn't seem to change the behavior.

Another thing I noticed was that when a user logs in, the browser link displayed is <http://www.egr.msu.edu/first/metacat> and the page display shows:

Authentication successful for user: uid=namilikonda,o=MSU,dc=ecoinformatics,dc=org 58F85F0FFE9DD361CFD4ED520D044E80

Further, when a user goes back to the main page and clicks on "Browse All Assessments", the following information is displayed and all the navigation buttons disappear.

You could try having Arthur restart Tomcat. You're correct in thinking the stylesheets are to blame. I'm not sure what the cause is, however.

Error in path caused the error, which is now resolved.

The path is missing a slash in it.
