| You can currently try to drag these items out to canvas, resulting in an error. I thought these were <code>_notDraggable</code> at one point... | | | |

I'm at the trunk of the wrp suite, and I can't reproduce this. I did a search for "run2-mclaughlin" on the keplerdev repository. In the KAR is an item, "WorkflowRun,2.xml". As expected, I am unable to drag this tree node.

Can others reproduce this bug?

Hey Sean, you're right, the run in a remote kar isn't draggable. The bug happens for me for run-kars saved in a local repo.

This no longer happens.
