Description
The MDE "New" dialog box has an "OK" and a "Cancel" button. Choosing cancel should result in no action, but currently a new document is still created. I'm not sure what document type is used.

reassigned to jones

Lowered priority because we might drop MDE and replace it with another editing solution.

Won't fix -- new metadata editors for Morpho make MDE obsolete. Will reopen this bug if that decision changes.
