just after release, this sort of thing will become really important.

this doesn't need to be a bug. We are continuing to do this, and have done much of it. It could be a wiki page, and IS a vegbank page:
<http://vegbank.org/vegdocs/panel/training.html>

Tutorial exists, some demos of VegBranch exist, workshop materials are available online. VegBrach help pages are becoming more helpful and widespread. Right click help is always available in VegBranch.

Do we need more?

I misunderstood this bug and reopen it to allow this "self guide" or perhaps even a course bug to exist.
